3 Basic concepts and definitions

Discount is a reduction in the cost of paid educational services for a certain period according to this Provision, provided that the student fulfills certain conditions necessary to receive a discount (benefits), i.e. necessary to change the price of educational services by reducing;

The discount period is the period of time for which the student has the right to pay a reduced part of the cost of paid educational services (semester, academic year);

The benefit is provided to students in the form of an increase in the payment period for tuition (not in two tranches, but monthly).

4 General provisions

The regulation was developed for the purpose of social support of students, as part of the implementation of the Institute's Mission to train competent and competitive specialists for the region and the country, which determined the establishment of tuition fees below the state grant, taking into account market conditions – based on data on the solvency of the population.

5 The procedure for granting discounts (benefits) on tuition fees

5.1 Discounts (benefits) are provided to students by the Vice-President of the EITI named after Academician K. Satpayev on the basis of an application for a period of one academic year.
